

TRAFFIC CAMERA

My husband was driving when he saw the flash of a traffic camera.

He figured that his picture had been taken for exceeding the limit even though he knew that he was not speeding.

Just to be sure, he went around the block and passed the same spot, driving even more slowly, but again the camera flashed.

Now he began to think that this was quite funny, so he drove even slower as he passed the area once more, but the traffic camera again flashed.

He tried a fourth and fifth time with the same results and was now laughing as the camera flashed while he rolled past at a snail's pace.

Two weeks later, he got five tickets in the mail for driving without a seat belt.

Did he miss the obvious? Putting importance in the wrong place?

He really was sure of what the flash was all about.

Be Careful – Don't Laugh too hard

How many times will you try to make a deal with God before you realize, all you have to say is

"I accept, Thank you"

It seems we keep missing the obvious point of Jesus.

2 Corinthians 1

⁷And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. ⁸For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: ⁹But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: ¹⁰Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

The above verses are studied in detail on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. Ya'll come!
