

Moses read God's words to the people. The Israelites joined Moses and God in a public covenant ceremony to demonstrate their willingness to obey God.

Several thousand years later

Rex invited his co-worker, Greg, to visit his church for the pastor's sermon series on the Ten Commandments.

Greg replied, "I think all so-called values are relative."

Rex responded, "If you believe God exists, then surely He has the right to set the standards for His people."

Greg answered, "Well, you might be right. I do believe in God, but I'm not sure the intolerant values of the Ten Commandments are right for today."

If you believe in God...

If you believe God's values don't change...

If you believe God will keep all promises and covenants...

Then you must believe in the extreme risk of not taking Him seriously!!!

A father's heart is soft and mushy inside, even when it seems to come with a very hard shell. While many may find him a hard nut to crack, all it really takes is a smile, a hug, and a quiet 'I love you'; no special convincing required.

Don't miss the opportunity to wish your dad a Happy Father's Day.

Deuteronomy 6

- 6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:
- 7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.
- 8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.
- 9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

"A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society."

-- Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist

The father who does not teach his son his duties is equally guilty with the son who neglects them.

"By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong."
