

O House of God

by Paul Berchtold (excerpt)

O house of God, his dwelling on earth,
Today we honor your day of birth.
Let us celebrate with jubilation,
This special feast of consecration.

O loving witness to the work of others,
Strong in faith, our Christian brothers,
Great their sacrifice in times past,
May their memory always last.

May we your children take every care,
That this remains God's house of prayer.
May God be worshiped in reverent praise,
That he may dwell within always.

O silent teacher, by your steeple,
You point to heaven all God's people,
Standing tall for all the years.
A place to come with all our fears.

O home for sinners to repent,
By Christ's death, the veil was rent,
Christ rose again, that we may live,
Thank you, church, for what you give.
