

After God delivered His people from Egyptian slavery He instructed them about what they should do as His covenant partners. They were to be loyal to Him as the only true God, make no idols, respect His name, and worship Him regularly. They should show respect for their parents, their marriage vows, human life, and other people's property. They should not lie or covet. Moses read God's words to the people. The Israelites joined Moses and God in a public covenant ceremony to demonstrate their willingness to obey God.

Several thousand years later ....

Rex invited his co-worker, Greg, to visit his church for the pastor's sermon series on the Ten Commandments. Greg replied, "I think all so-called values are relative." Rex responded, "If you believe God exists, then surely He has the right to set the standards for His people." Greg answered, "Well, you might be right. I do believe in God, but I'm not sure the intolerant values of the Ten Commandments are right for today."

If you believe in God...
If you believe God's values don't change...
If you believe God will keep all promises and covenants...
Then you must believe in the extreme risk of not taking Him seriously!!!

Luke 22:15-20 (KJV)

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: 16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. 17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: 18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. 19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. 20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

The above verses are studied in detail on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. Ya'll come!

Would you build a house without a foundation?
Such are the 10 Commandments to serving God.
God does not change and neither does His Foundation.
How is it that Man assumes authority to change God?
