

Let's be honest: living as a Christian isn't easy all the time. It's not that we don't want to have quiet times, experience God's presence, or spend time with Him in prayer.

The problem is that we want other things more.

In Matthew 5:6 Jesus said, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied."

He highlighted the core problem: we lack a true hunger for God.

We're too easily satisfied by the temporary pleasures and distractions of this world.

We don't understand physical hunger

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work" (John 4:31-34).

We don't understand spiritual nourishment

SEEK the Savior to be fed.

Philippians 1:27-30(KJV)

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; 28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. 29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; 30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

The above verses are studied in detail on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. Ya'll come!
